

CONTENTS OF VOLUME 120, NUMBER 1

DAVID STOKES Foreword	1
JOHN A. TALENT Passing of a polymath: Neil Wilfred Archbold (1950–2005) Professor of Palaeontology, Deakin University	2
JOHN A. TALENT & MONICA J. CAMPI Bibliography of Neil W. Archbold	14
MONICA J. CAMPI New taxa and combinations of Neil W. Archbold	27
HAMISH J. CAMPBELL, CHRIS J. ADAMS & NICK MORTIMER Exploring the Australian geological heritage of Zealandia and New Zealand	38
B.S. LIEBERMAN Emerging syntheses between palaeobiogeography and macroevolutionary theory	51
FERNANDO ALVAREZ & C. HOWARD C. BRUNTON On the reliability of reconstructing and comparing brachiopod interiors and their morphological variations based solely on serial sections	58
LUCIA ANGIOLINI & SARAH L. LONG The ENS Collection: a systematic study of brachiopods from the Lower Permian Vøringen Member, Kapp Starostin Formation, Spitsbergen	75
ALEXANDER S. BIAKOV Permian bivalves of the Family Kolymiidae Kusnezov of northeast Asia: systematics, evolution, and biostratigraphy	104
DAVID BRANAGAN Captain Eugene de Hautpik – A Russian ghost in Australian mining and geological history?	118
G.A. CISTERNA & A.F. STERREN Late Carboniferous Levipustula Fauna in the Leoncito Formation, San Juan Province, Argentine Precordillera: biostratigraphical and palaeoclimatological implications	137
CHRISTOPHER J. DAVEY & W. IAN EDWARDS Crucibles from the Bronze Age of Egypt and Mesopotamia	148
WEIHONG HE, G. R. SHI, YONGQUN GAO, YUANQIAO PENG, YANG ZHANG A new Early Triassic microgastropod fauna from the Zhongzhai Section, Guizhou, southwestern China	157
NORTON HILLER, JEFFREY H. ROBINSON & DAPHNE E. LEE The micromorphic brachiopod Argyrotheca (Terebratulida: Megathyridoidea) in Australia and New Zealand	167
JOHN A. LONG & TIMOTHY HOLLAND A possible ‘elpistostegalid’ fish from the Devonian of Gondwana	184

M. LUISA MARTÍNEZ CHACÓN & COR F. WINKLER PRINS New Bashkirian (Carboniferous) brachiopods from Latores (Asturias, N Spain)	194
JACK H. PASCOE, RAYLENE COOKE, & JOHN G. WHITE Detection of owls, owllet nightjars and arboreal mammals in edge environments of Cape Otway, south-western Victoria	206
R.R. PIERSON Glacigene Permian sediments and associated striated pavements of Victoria – an historical review	216
WILLIAM R.H. RAMSAY & ELIZABETH G. RAMSAY A case for the production of the earliest commercial hard-paste porcelains in the English-speaking world by Edward Heylyn and Thomas Frye in about 1743	236
J. SHERWOOD, J. MONDON & C. FENTON Classification and management issues of estuaries in western Victoria, Australia	257
G.R. SHI, Z.Q. CHEN & JIN-NAN TONG New latest Carboniferous brachiopods from the Hexi Corridor Terrane, North China: faunal migrations and palaeogeographical implications	277
A.C. TABOADA First record of the Late Palaeozoic brachiopod Verchojania Abramov in Patagonia, Argentina	305
EMMA TADDEI RUGGIERO & PASQUALE RAIA Ontogeny in Terebratula species: functional convergence and allometry but not heterochrony	320
J. TAZAWA A bipolar brachiopod genus Terrakea Booker, 1930 from the Middle Permian of the South Kitakami Belt, northeast Japan	332
MARK THOMAS WARNE Comments on the identity of Trachyleberis scabrocuneata (Brady, 1880) and Trachyleberis lytteltonensis Harding and Sylvester-Bradley, 1953 (Ostracoda) from Australasian and Asian marine waters	341
J.B. WATERHOUSE Golden Spikes and Black Flags – macro-invertebrate faunal zones for the Permian of east Australia	345
J.A. WEBB & E. SPENCE Glaciomarine Early Permian strata at Bacchus Marsh, central Victoria – the final phase of Late Palaeozoic glaciation in southern Australia	373
COR F. WINKLER PRINS Some spiriferid brachiopods from the Permian of Timor (Indonesia)	389
